

We would like to inform that Excel will be on vacations during the period of Dec 26th to Jan 07th . We ask for the kindness of programming your future orders, in order to allow us to anticipate its production.

Thank you very much ! Hope you have great business coming still this year.

Proper inflation : Facts & Benefits

- You can improve your gas mileage by around 3.3 % by keeping your tires inflated to the proper pressure. Besides, properly inflated tires are safer and last longer.
- Better fuel economy can reduce countries dependence on foreign oil.
- Only 19% of drivers properly check their tire pressure, In fact, further data reveals that 75% of U.S. drivers are likely to wash their cars each month, while only 14% properly check their tire pressure.

(Source: Rubber Manufacturers Association)

- • Improves Fuel Economy - U.S. could save some 4.2 million gallons of fuel every day just by keeping tires properly inflated.
- • Reduces road service calls and costly vehicle downtime.
- • A well tended tire can last for 40.000 to 80.000 miles more.

- • Tire pressure is the single great cause of tire damage and failure.
- • Under inflated tires can build up heat, which could cause potentially fatal blowouts.
- • Over 80% of all tire problems experienced by the fleets was a direct results of improper inflation.
- • Proper inflated tires are the cheapest and now the easiest way to control fuel and tire expensive and the on most often overlooked.

(Source: <http://www.electronictireinflator.com>)